Part two of List of Financial Terms

Bonds

What is a bond, a bond is a security representing the debt of a company or government issuing it. When a company issues a bond, it borrows money from the bondholders; it then uses the money to invest in its operations. In exchange, the bondholder receives the principal amount back on a maturity date stated in the indenture, which is the agreement governing a bond's term. In addition, the bondholder usually has.....

Equity.

Well, in the broadest sense, equity gives you ownership. If you own stock, you have equity in the firm, that is, you own a portion of the company that issued the stock, no matter how small it may be.

Having equity is the opposite of owning a bond or commercial paper, which is a debt that the company must repay to you when it.....
