

Recommendation

Roger Morello Ros

His potentials, instrumental skills and learning capacities are on an outstanding high level. Because of his bright mind, musical sensitivity and ability of youthful and spontaneous music-making he achieves interesting results in his playing. He forces people to listen to him, one can easily feel his commitment. He cares for individualism, good taste and general quality.

Roger is a very active young man who doesn't wait for other people organizing his life, he is the one who makes the first step. He sets his goals and follows the road consequently. On that path he shows a good feeling whom he can trust for helping him in fulfilling his plans.

His personality is stable, there is a good balance between confidence in himself and modesty. Love for music and respect of music as a responsible profession is driving him. Strongly recommended
